THE BERKELEY LAUNCHES CHRISTIAN DIOR: DESIGNER OF DREAMS EXPERIENCE WITH TICKETS TO THE SOLD-OUT EXHIBITION AT THE V&A MUSEUM

In celebration of the highly acclaimed exhibition, Christian Dior: Designer of Dreams at the V&A museum – The Berkeley, Belgravia’s landmark hotel, has created an exclusive fashion experience which includes tickets to the now completely sold-out retrospective show as well as a stay at the fashion favourite hotel.

Two coveted tickets to the show are included for all guests booking the Christian Dior at The Berkeley experience as well as a night at the hotel, in room treats with Pret-a-Portea Dior Couture cakes; a haute couture homage created by our pastry chefs, a copy of the specially commissioned book ‘Christian Dior’ telling the story of one of the most celebrated designers of our time and of course a chilled bottle of champagne on arrival.

Based on the major exhibition Christian Dior: Couturier du Rêve, organised by the Musée des Arts Décoratifs, Paris, the exhibition is the largest ever staged in the UK on the House of Dior. From 1947 to the present day, Christian Dior: Designer of Dreams traces the history and impact of one of the 20th century’s most influential couturiers, and the six artistic directors who have succeeded him, to explore the enduring influence of the fashion house.

The experience at The Berkeley which runs from March 11th to July 14th, 2019, priced from £780 (including VAT) for a Deluxe King room includes two tickets to the exhibition Christian Dior: Designer of Dreams, Pret-a-Portea Dior Couture cakes in your room, a copy of the specially commissioned book ‘Christian Dior’, a chilled bottle of champagne on arrival and English breakfast the following morning.
